What is KYC?

The Law surrounding Anti-Money Laundering requires us to collect and to verify identification documents in respect of anyone applying to using our address services.

In respect of limited Companies the rules provide that we identify some or all of the company directors and also the beneficial owners of the company

What photo ID documents are acceptable?

You can provide any of the following as your Photo ID.

- Passport (Booklet form)
- Passport (Card form)
- Drivers Licence

Note, the photo ID provided must be valid and in date.

Expired photo ID's will not be accepted.

What can I use as a proof of address?

You can provide any of the following as your Photo ID:

- Current utility bills; (including those printed from the internet)
- Current household/motor insurance certificate and renewal notice
- Official documentation/cards issued by a taxation authority (For Example the Revenue Commissioners in Ireland or HMRC in the UK) and addressed to the individual
- Instrument of a court appointment (such as liquidator, or grant of probate)
- Current local authority document e.g. refuse collection bill, water charge bill (including those printed from the internet)
- Current statement of account from a credit or financial institution, or credit/debit card statements (including those printed from the internet)

Note, the proof of address must be dated within 3 months. At a minimum it will need to show your name and address, along with the date issued and the senders details.

(if you're sending sensitive information (eg a bank statement) be sure to redact any sensitive information before sending it to us.

What is the Verification process?

In addition to collection ID and proof of address, the rules provide that we need to verify your Identity. In other words, we need to establish that it's really you and not, for example, someone attempting to impersonate you.

Verification can be completed by various different methods. For example by ID verification technology, by provision of additional ID's, by provision of appropriate selfie + photo matching and by face to face meeting.

Data Protection

The documents that you provide are used solely for the purposes as set out in the The Criminal Justice (Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing) Act 2010, as amended and for no other purpose.
